Chapter 1 by Astrid

Beeeeep. Beeeep. Beep. The noises slowed, until the noise ceased to exist at all. The girls life slipped away with the sound. Her eyes closed, and her breath stopped. There was no one there. No one to morn her. No one who cared. She died peacefully, and alone. A doctor slipped into the room, and stared down a her limp form. "Sad." she said quietly. A few people walked in, ready to carry her body away. She was buried the next day. Everyone assumed her dead. They were wrong.
